By Andrew Snape Hamond Esq. commander
of His Majesty's Ship the Arethusa.

In consequence of an order I have received from Rear Admiral Montagu.

You are hereby required and directed to proceed forthwith in in His Majesty's schooner under your command to Boston, and there to join the Admiral; first calling upon the Collector of His Majestys Customs at this place, to know if he has any money to send round by you to the Custom house there. Given under my hand on board His Majesty's Ship the Arethusa in New York Harbour the 14th. August 1772

A. S. Hamond

To Lieut. Dawson
commander of His Majs Schooner the Hope

By Andrew Snape Hamond Esq. commander
of His Majesty's Ship the Arethusa.

Wm. Pendergast. Whereas the Seaman named in the margin is a deserter from his majesty's Ship under my command.

You are hereby required and directed to discharge the said Wm. Pendergast from his Majesty's Sloop under your command into the Arethusa, taking care to comply with the late act of Parliament. Given under my hand on board His Majesty's Ship the Arethusa at Hampton Road in Virginia the 12 Oct. 1772

To Captain Bromedge commander of his Majesty's Sloop the Savage

Memorandum. 12th Oct. 1772 gave such another order to Captain Malby to Discharge Suttle Hanson, a deserter also.

By John Montagu Esq.r &c.a

You are hereby required and directed when any Men belonging to his Majesty's Ship under your command are sent to the Hospital for care on any part of the continent to send a duplicate Ticket properly filled up and signed with them, and also to send a duplicate Ticket to the Hospital for such men as may be now there.

Given under my hand on board his Majesty's Ship Captain at Boston the 12. February 1773

To Captain Hamond of his Majs. Ship Lethusa

Jn.o Montagu.

By command of the Admiral

Jno. Atkinson

By Andrew Snape Hamond Esq.r Commander of his Majesty's ship the Arethusa and Senior Off.r at Halifax

Whereas it has been represented to me, that there are many of the sails, the Running & standing Rigging and divers other stores in the charge of the Boatswain of his Majesty's ship under my command which are decayed and unfit for their proper uses.

You are hereby required and directed to repair on board his Majesty's said ship and there take a strict and careful survey of the said sails, the standing & Running rigging and all the other stores in the charge of the Boatswain; and such of them as you find to be unfit for their proper uses, you are to deliver into into His custody to be returned into his Majesty's store at this port; reporting to me from under your hands, not only the species and quantities of the decayed stores, but those you find fit for Service, in seperate reports.

Given under my hand onboard his Majesty's ship the Arethusa at Halifax the 2d June 1773

A S H

To

The Master attendant of his Majesty's Dockyard at Halifax; the Master of the Arethusa, and Boats of the — Captain.